The horse that you use for the contest element does not have to be the same horse you ride at the rodeo or at the crowning.

The order for the competition will be Queen, Princess and Junior Princess.

Note Regarding differences in the divisions. Princess and Junior Princess will not do a flag run. Jr Princess Horsemanship pattern will not include loping. Jr Princess contestants may have assistance with mounting and dismounting. Jr. Princess contestants will only be using a portion of the arena and will be required to perform a modified "royalty wave" run at either the walk, jog or lope at the contestants choice, however it should be noted that depending on the gait selected it will determine the available points for that wave run (refer to scoring sheet for details). Jr Princess contestants may be lead lined but there will be a points addition to those who are not lead lined.

Being mindful that the extent of knowledge required increases with the age of the contestant. Meaning we wouldn't expect a 7 year to know what a 19 year knows regarding these subjects.
- Provide their own wardrobe and adhere to wardrobe guide given by the committee. It is noted that TANK TOPS, HALTER TOPS, MIDRISE SHIRTS, CAMI TOPS. etc. are never acceptable when we are making appearances or volunteering. No skin is to show between shirt and pants/skirt. - Not allow themselves, their friends or related individuals to influence, intimidate or harass judges, committee members, other contestants or contestant's families which include but are not limited to negative gestures, comments and or verbal or written communication during the contest and after the crowning. Action of this type may result in the disqualification of a contestant at the discretion of the committee and could result in barring them from future competition. It is the contestant's responsibility to inform their friends and family of this rule and any other pertinent rules.
- Acknowledge that the committee who is running this contest welcomes and encourages friends and family of the contestants to attend different phases of the competition and crowning, however at no time during the contest activities shall parents, family or friends disturb the contest, nor may they coach the contestants from the sidelines during any of the elements (unless it is a safety issue). This committee seeks all cooperation from family, friends and supporters during this competition. Please know that cheers, encouragement and applause are always welcome!
- While each contestant gets three dinner tickets, a fair wristband pass, a parking pass, a rodeo ticket as well as a full page in the Rodeo Program Book they must inform family and friends that they are responsible for purchasing their own tickets for events and this includes Fair, Rodeo and any events that the contestants or crowned royalty attend unless otherwise noted.
- If the contestant wins a division she can not enter that division again. Any contestant in this contest may not hold a current Rodeo Royalty title.
- Understand that Entry Fees, Ticket Sales, Donations and Sponsorships are non-refundable.

- Be required to participant in the Committee and Rodeo events as specified by the committee and if crowned be willing and able to attend specified events throughout the year of her reign as well as having a suitable horse for parades and rodeo appearances.
- Understand that photographs, images or likeness of the contestants may be used by the committee for promotion and advertising purposes and the signing of this document serves as the contestant's/parent/guardian's written consent. This includes posting photos on social media, such as Facebook.
- Understand that if the Queen or Princess divisions result in a tie with the overall scoring, that the tie will be broken by the contestant who had the higher scoring at the Personal Interview. Should the Junior Princess division have a tie, that tie will be broken by On Stage Performance scores.
- Understand that all contestants must volunteer at least for 1hour during Fair (Friday, Saturday or Sunday) at a designated fair booth or activity that is separate from events already listed. Jr Princess contestants must be accompanied by a parent or with Princess or Queen Contestants or current royalty. You will be assigned times and locations.
- Understand that following the crowning of the Queen, ALL contestants must remain at the rodeo to participate and failure to do so may impact their ability to participate in future contests. Non crowned Queen contestants may be required to run flags at the rodeo. Crowned and Non Crowned Princess contestants may be able to run flags, depending on the decision of the committee, based on riding ability, suitable horse and experience.
- Acknowledge that the Royalty Winners will be responsible for perpetual awards through out their reign and those awards are to be presented to the newly crowned royalty at the crowning. Queen: Parade Serape, (2 sets) Chaps, Leather Sash. Jr Princess and Princess: Chaps. If these items are damaged or lost during her reign, she is responsible for immediately notifying the committee and for the replacement/repair of the item(s). Queen, Princess and JR Princess Chaps may be purchased for REPLACEMENT COST and arrangements for this must be made with the Rodeo Royalty Coordinators at least 90 days prior to the crowning of the new Rodeo Royalty so that we have time to get another set made.

I, the undersigned, acknowledge that I have read the aforementioned statements, eligibility requirements, rules and regulations and I fully understand and agree to abide by the terms and conditions therein, including informing my friends and family of these rules and my responsibility to adhere to these rules.
